GIANTS DIVIDE HONORS

Break Even with Pirates, but Climb to First Place.

LUCK GOES AGAINST MATTY

Marquard Comes Back, How ever, and Holds Pittsburg to Two Clean Singles.

With "Rube" Marquard in the box, the Giants came back after losing a bitterly fought battle to the Pirates, and broke even on the double header at the Polo yesterday afternoon. Victory brought them up on even terms with the Chicago Cubs, who were beaten by the Brooklyn Superbas. Mathewson was de feated in a brilliant pitchers' battle with "Babe" Adams. The score was 3 to 1. But the mighty Marquard twirled one of greatest games ever seen on the Grounds, and downed the Smoky City band by a score of 2 to 1, after a wonderful due! with Oscar Camnitz, "Rube" allowed only two hits and struck out eleven batsmen.

Matty pitched a brilliant game against the Pennsylvania men, and inasmuch as the defeat was largely responsible to a thought less play on the part of Larry Doyle. portion of the bitter bowl was doubly The sterling pitcher held his rivals down to six hits during the eight innings he officiated. He was taken out to "Red" Murray to bat for him. Not balls did the "King" issue; and, while he did not go after strike-outs, he fanned two men to keep his hand in. The Giants made a bold bid for honors in the eighth inning of the first game when Fletcher bent out a hit to Leach, and when field stands Arthur made the trip to the 'Muller plate with ease. McGraw sent Devlin in to run for the Chief, while Murray was sent McKechnie and Arthur was doubled at second. Crandall went into the game in the minth frame, but the Pirates made the bat-

GOOD BOXING BOUTS TO-NIGHT. Two ten-round bouts will be witnessed by the members of the Twentieth Century Athletic Club to-night. Harry Stone, the Ghetto lightweight, and "Willie" Howard, of Brooklyn, will meet in the main bout The semi-final will bring together "Willie" Jones and "Eddle" Dennis, the much heralded San Francisco lightweight.

Herman, the promising little bantamweight, will box with Paddy Meehan, of Brooklyn, in the semi-final of six rounds. "Young" Britt, the Baltimore boy, will appear in action against Jockey Worthing-ton in the main bout of ten rounds at the Erighton Beach Athletic Club to-night The bout should be fast and interestings Worthington is said to be a clever lad.

The Boston player was at his best, erature, and many spectators went to the and his coaching of the team was one of the features of the match. Aside from playing poorly, Afken also had wretched luck throughout the entire eight periods. In the fifth period Harrison Tweed and his pony took the most spectacular spill ever seen on the Point Judith polo field, and that neither was hurt was miraculous. New Haven was exerting itself to the utmost to overtake the lead of the ten goal & handicap. In a fierce ride to get possession of the ball Tweed could not check his pony, and they crashed into the picket fence bordering the field. On the inside was a low hedge and on the other a line of autonobiles. Into them the pony went at full tilt. By a superhuman effort Tweed pulled his pony sideways before they both landed The pony was slightly stunned, but Tweed escaped without a scratch, and as soon as another pony could be procured for him he remounted and resumed play.
